

Name: _____

Make It a Correct Compound Sentence!

Directions:

1. Label subject (S), label verb (V), and bracket off the independent clauses
2. Then, make each into a correct compound sentence.
3. Please CIRCLE the commas that you add.

1. I couldn't finish my paper last night I had too much work to do.
2. She studied environmental law, she felt strongly about environmental issues.
3. I prefer trail running to road running however it's more relaxing in the woods.
4. I'm in my office space working and, he approaches me.
5. The time finally came to carry out the plan, however I panicked.
6. I got on the court for warm ups the lights glared down on me, it was the best feeling.